The Sixth European Red Cross and Red Crescent Conference in Berlin 14-18 April 2002,

Recalling the Copenhagen Declaration adopted at the Fifth European Red Cross and Red Crescent Conference in 1997;

Recalling the Plan of Action adopted by the 27th International Conference of the Red Cross and Red Crescent;

Reaffirming their commitment to Strategy 2010 and to the Strategy for the Movement;

Recalling Resolution 4 of the Council of Delegates in 2001 on refugees and internally displaced people;

Recalling Resolution 15 of the 25th International Conference of the Red Cross and Red Crescent on tracing and family reunification;

Taking note of the Declaration of the Kiev Conference;

Noting with approval the reports of the working groups as well as their preparatory documents, and acknowledging their significant contribution to the success of the Berlin Conference and the Berlin Charter and Plans of Action;

1. adopts the Berlin Charter contained in annex 1,

2. adopts the Plans of Action contained in annex 2,

3. adopts the Follow-up Process contained in annex 3,

4. urges all members of the Berlin Conference to implement the actions set out in the Plans of Action, in accordance with their respective powers, mandates and capacities, and in the spirit of the principles outlined in the Berlin Charter, with a view to reaching the goals defined in the Plans of Action,

5. requests the members of the Berlin Conference to present a report, through the secretariat of the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies to the Seventh European Red Cross and Red Crescent Conference on the implementation of the Plans of Action,

6. thanks the host National Society – the German Red Cross, for its warm hospitality and for its excellent organization of the Conference.