The judiciary and disaster response - the case of Jammu & Kashmir

The Supreme Court of India has taken up a case related to floods that have recently taken place in the Kashmir Valley. More details

Need for strong laws emphasized at negotiations on new global instrument for risk reduction

Delegates in Geneva have begun formal negotiations on the successor instrument for the Hyogo Framework for Action (HFA). More details

“Disaster Response Dialogue” in Manila emphasizes trust

Dialogue meeting calls for trust building measures between international and national responders to improve relief operations. More details

 ALSO IN THIS ISSUE

> Boosting transborder cooperation in emergency health between Panama and Costa Rica. Read article

> Reflecting on a stronger rule-book for disaster management: messages from the Americas to the world. Read article

> The right place, the right time: disaster law in Madagascar. Read article

> Regional consultations examine the role of law in reducing disaster risk in Africa. Read article

> African National Societies build skills for disaster law advocacy. Read article

> Armenian Red Cross launches legal review to build resilience in Yerevan. Read article

> Disaster Laws: Making Communities Safer in South Asia? Read article

Please join us on our new Facebook group and Linkedin group on disaster law!

 Follow us on: FedNet

Questions? Comments? Write to us at: disaster.law@ifrc.org.