Model law to speed disaster relief launched at Inter-Parliamentary Union Assembly

Parliamentarians from around the world attending the 128th Assembly of the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU) in Quito greeted the launch of a new model law to speed relief in future mega-disasters.

More details

High-level event in Port-au-Prince calls for stronger legal preparedness for international disaster assistance in the Caribbean

The Government of Haiti, the Government of Mexico, the ACS and the IFRC hosted an event on “Strengthening legal preparedness for international disaster assistance in Association of Caribbean States countries” in Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

More details

New post-disaster shelter study kicks off in Nepal

In April 2013, a three-month study was launched in Nepal, looking at regulatory barriers to the provision of emergency and transitional shelter after disasters. It forms part of a project initiated by the IFRC’s DLP and Shelter department.

More details

ALSO IN THIS EDITION

> First lady of Paraguay welcomes the support of Red Cross in legal preparedness

> IDRL issues featured in international Table Top Exercise in West Sumatra

> Cuba analyses IDRL instruments

> Stories from the field: Legal issues in Typhoon Bopha’s shelter response

> Honduras tests regional international disaster assistance tools

> New York diplomats ponder international law and institutions for disaster response

> New UN guide for Asia-Pacific disaster managers emphasises the role of legal preparedness

> The WCO’s SAFE Framework and the facilitation of relief consignments

> The Disaster Law Programme welcomes new Coordinator for Africa

We are recruiting:

> Disaster law consultancy MENA region (Arabic required)