UN member states welcome IDRL progress at the Economic and Social Council

The UN ECOSOC continued its engagement and interest in IDRL. This was reflected in a dedicated side event at its annual “Humanitarian Affairs Segment” as well as in its adopted resolution. More details

International Law Commission debates the conditions of international disaster assistance

At its annual session in Geneva this July, the International Law Commission advanced on several new articles for its “Draft Articles on the Protection of Persons in the Event of Disasters,” More details.

The IFRC releases new reports on IDRL in Colombia and Mozambique

In collaboration with the Mozambique Red Cross and the Colombian Red Cross, the IFRC has released new reports on IDRL in Colombia and IDRL in Mozambique.

ALSO IN THIS EDITION

> National Societies of the Americas create new network on disaster law
> Kuwaiti Red Crescent organizes the country’s first IDRL workshop
> Shelter from the storm: KL workshop explores solutions to regulatory barriers
> Experts from the Americas provide comments on the Model Act on IDRL
> Manila workshop plots course for IDRL process in the Philippines
> The Indonesia Red Cross Society unpacks issues concerning the role of customs in natural disaster relief
> Jamaica Red Cross and ODPEM organize an IDRL workshop

PROFILE IN DISASTER LAW ADVOCACY

> Dr. Bosko Jakovljevic

Upcoming events

> ECOWAS Workshop, 17-19 September

More upcoming events