An updated report on Sierra Leone’s legal preparedness for IDRL was launched in Freetown on 28 January 2014.

Parliamentarians support new Disaster Risk Management law in Sierra Leone

The Superior Decree for the Facilitation of International Humanitarian Operations was presented by the National Institute of Civil Defence of Peru.

Peru adopts IDRL Decree

An updated report on Sierra Leone’s legal preparedness for IDRL was launched in Freetown on 28 January 2014.

Parliamentarians support new Disaster Risk Management law in Sierra Leone

DLP Coordinator for Asia Pacific Tessa Kelly and Disaster Law Delegate Lucia Cipullo deployed to the Philippines to support the Typhoon Haiyan response.

Operationalizing disaster law: Typhoon Haiyan response

Haitian Red Cross and Dominican Red Cross commit to build capacity and strengthen cooperation mechanisms between the two Societies, including on legal preparedness and advocacy.

Haitian Red Cross and Dominican Red Cross sign a new cooperation agreement

ALSO IN THIS ISSUE

> Interview with the Vice-President of Guatemala on IDRL draft legislation
> Malawi launches IDRL project
> Interview with Dr Fazsi Oussedik
> Disaster Law Programme at the Americas Field School

UPCOMING TRAINING EVENT

> The law faculties of the Universities of Bologna, Roma Tre, Uninettuno and Pisa, S. Anna and IFRC’s DLP will co-convene an International Disaster Law Course for academics and practitioners hosted at the IIHL in Sanremo 28 April - 2 May 2014.

Follow us on:

Questions? Comments? Write to us at: disaster.law@ifrc.org.