Central American Heads of State call for new regional instrument on disaster cooperation

At the 41st Summit of Heads of State and Government of the member states of SICA in San Jose, the top leaders of eight countries took an important step forward in the development of disaster law in the region. More details

Event at European Parliament hears calls for more active EU promotion of IDRL

On 5 June, H.E. Michèle Striffler, Permanent Rapporteur of the European Parliament for Humanitarian Aid, hosted the Parliament’s first-ever event examining the regulation of international disaster relief. More details

New DLP publications: Better laws, safer communities?

Case studies in Ethiopia and Nicaragua form part of a multi-county research project by IFRC and the UNDP. In advance of a global synthesis report, preliminary findings are also collected in a pamphlet. More details

Bangladesh building collapse underscores importance of building codes in preventing disasters

The collapse of the Rana Plaza factory building in Bangladesh generated global headlines as survivors and bodies were pulled from the rubble where the building once stood in Savar, a sub-district outside the capital city of Dhaka. More details

ALSO IN THIS EDITION

- Comments invited on a new draft tool — Model Emergency Decree on IDRL
- Caribbean leaders call for action to strengthen disaster management and reduce risk
- Civil protection authorities tackle host nation support at annual NATO seminar
- ASEAN regional forum highlights legal preparedness for international disaster response
- Italian Red Cross teams up with academia to train volunteers in IDRL
- IDRL featured at military law and operations conference
- Asian policy forum calls for more inclusive laws and policies for disaster response
- IDRL study kicks off in Ecuador
- IDRL study launched in Tonga
- Cook Islands pioneer IDRL phase II
- Profile in Disaster Law Advocacy: Hon Patricia M Hajabakiga
- Video: Strengthening legal preparedness for international disaster assistance in the Caribbean

Follow us on: Disaster Law Programme

Questions? Comments? Write to us at: disaster.law@ifrc.org.