The Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Safety of UN and Associated Personnel has now entered into force, extending the scope of states’ duties to protect humanitarians. But will it make a difference in natural disasters? More details.

Commonwealth law ministers mull legal preparedness for disasters

At their annual meetings at Marlborough House in London, the “Senior Officials of Commonwealth Law Ministries” and the “Law Ministers of Small Commonwealth Jurisdictions” mulled how to strengthen their disaster laws. More details.

New advocacy report and video highlight disaster law issues in Asia

The IFRC has launched a new report about how Asian National Societies and governments are overcoming legal problems in disaster response.

ALSO IN THIS EDITION

> Disaster law tops the agenda at Asia-Pacific RC/RC Conference
> Momentum on IDRL builds in the EU
> Norwegian law students organize campaign on IDRL
> IDRL project launched in Haiti
> IDRL project launched in Kazakhstan
> IDRL project working group meets in Lima
> Ulaanbaatar workshop exposes legal gaps
> Italian Red Cross brings IDRL to its volunteers
> World Customs Org. starts IDRL planning
> National Society legal advisors look to the future of disaster law
> IDRL programme report

Questions? Comments? Write us at: idrl@ifrc.org.