

ARE YOU interested in international humanitarian WORK?

WOULD YOU like to connect with other young volunteers from other COUNTRIES?

DO YOU have what it takes to bring change
IN EUROPE?

Come and join THE RCRC EUROPEAN YOUTH NETWORK!

The Red Cross Red Crescent European Youth Network (EYN) facilitates sharing of good practices, exchange of experiences and has advocated on behalf of its members since 1975. With 54 member countries in Europe and Central Asia, we connect more than 800,000 volunteers.

BISHKEK DECLARATION

The Bishkek Declaration

is a document agreed on by youth delegates during the 23rd European Youth Cooperation Meeting in 2018 in Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan. Its three main topics and three enabling actions will guide the work of the EYN in the coming years.

main topics

Mental health and emotional well-being Support volunteers and communities against depression, anxiety and other mental health challenges

Humanitarian Education and Advocacy Promote a culture of non-violence and peace in order to counter the rise of xenophobia and social exclusion

Migration Support the actions in the field of migration and focus on psychological support for migrants and volunteers

enabling actions

Youth Engagement Facilitate and develop the participation of youth in decision-making processes

Strengthen EYN Facilitate and develop the networking actions to share knowledge and good practice between National Societies

Innovation in volunteering Identify new ways of recruiting and retaining volunteers to develop new innovative solutions in the field of volunteering

How to get in touch

ONLINE

- Facebook and Instagram: @RCRCEYN
- Email: youth.europe@ifrc.org
- IFRC FedNet and E-learning platform

OFFLINE

- Talk to your National Society Youth focal point
- Participate in Red Cross Red Crescent international events